

Importing Vehicles into the U.S.

If you are planning on importing any motor vehicle into the U.S., please be aware that your vehicle MUST comply with all U.S. EPA and DOT regulations. To clear your motor vehicle through U.S. Customs, you will need to supply the following:

1. Completed EPA form (blocks 1, 2 & 3 may be left blank)
2. Completed DOT form (the first line requesting port of entry, customs port code, customs entry no. and entry date, can be left blank)
3. Copy of the U.S. Certificate of Title or Certificate of Origin from the U.S. proving auto was originally manufactured in the U.S.

OR

A letter from the manufacturer stating that your vehicle complies with all EPA and DOT regulations (letter must state vin #, year, make and model of your vehicle).

Please note that non-compliant vehicles will not be permitted into the U.S. (unless vehicle qualifies as "exempt").

If you have already initiated shipment of a vehicle into the U.S. and can not provide proof of compliance as sated in item number 3 above, please contact our office immediately at:
